Dear Team Members,

On the occasion of the New Year 2026, I extend my sincere greetings and best wishes to all employees of EPI and their families.

The year 2025 has been a period of both challenges and achievements for the organization. During this period, the collective efforts, discipline, and professionalism displayed by officers and staff at all levels have contributed significantly to the continued functioning and progress of EPI. Your commitment, sense of responsibility, and teamwork are duly acknowledged and appreciated.

The New Year 2026 presents new opportunities as well as responsibilities. It is expected that all officers and staff will continue to discharge their duties with dedication, integrity, and a spirit of cooperation, so as to achieve the organizational objectives and further strengthen EPI's role in serving stakeholders and contributing to national development.

I place on record my appreciation for the sincere efforts and valuable contributions made by all employees. Your continued support and commitment will be essential in meeting the challenges ahead and ensuring sustained growth and improvement in performance.

I wish you and your families good health, happiness, and success in the New Year 2026. Let us move forward with renewed determination and a shared commitment to excellence.

With best wishes

(Shivendra Nath)
